

Donations for 2007

Donations given to missionaries during 2007 Lm 70,596 (€ 164,444)
 Donations given since inception (1984-2007) Lm 862,382 (€ 2,008,810)

The following is a list of donations given by Mission Fund to Maltese missionaries during 2007:

	Name of Missionary	Country	Scope of donation
1	Fr Paul Buttigieg	Cuba	Towards the formation of catechists and helping communities of the parish with their basic needs.
2	Fr Peter Fenech	Brazil	Towards helping poor families to cope with their everyday basic needs, providing food, clothing and shelter.
3	Fr Laurence Gauci	Brazil	Towards providing poor families with food, medical care and education; also towards the organization of computer courses and the teaching of English language and other subjects.
4	Sr Maria Grech	Israel	Towards providing poor Christian families with food and medication and paying their school fees; also towards the project "Job Creation" aimed for young married men.
5	Sr Mary Rose Muscat	Ghana	Towards helping poor families with all their basic needs (food, education, medical needs and catechism) and also to provide assistance in other matters (e.g. funerals, marriages, etc...).
6	Sr Mary Ann Mallia	Pakistan	Towards providing free education and stationery to the orphans and paying their hostel fees; also towards the provision of free medicines to children suffering from T.B.
7	Sr M. Letizia Coreschi	Egypt	Towards the completion of a small hospital and church which were recently built for the parishioners.
8	Sr Helen Jones	Egypt	Towards the purchasing of chairs and tables and for paying a small fee to university students who teach the pupils, in order to help them continue with their studies.
9	Sr Josepha Gauci	Kenya	Towards running a day centre for street children and providing them with breakfast, their only meal, and with basic education.
10	Sr Ilaria Schiavone	Pakistan	Towards the repairs of St Theresa's Hospital especially the nursery, where newborn children are kept, which was damaged by heavy rainfall and floods.
11	Sr Graziella Camilleri	Kenya	Towards caring for the 65 elderly poor people who live in a home.
12	Sr. Aurea Muscat	Kenya	Towards the running of the health clinic and primary school in the village and providing stationery, medicine and food for the poor.
13	Fr. Adeodato Schembri	Brazil	Towards providing 280 hampers monthly and medicine to the poor families.
14	Mons. Walter Ebejer	Brazil	Towards the building of a new chapel for the community in the area.
15	Fr. Daniel Farrugia	Libya	Towards providing the immigrants with food, clothes and educating their children.
16	Sr. Carmen Borg	Philippines	Towards the distribution of food, clothes and medicine to the poor families and the running of a child care institution for abandoned children.
17	Sr. Andreina Sammut	Philippines	Towards the provision of food and medicine for the beggars who come to the convent and also towards the provision of stationery for the poor students who attend catechism classes.
18	Sr. Rachele Agius	Pakistan	Towards the supply of hand pumps for water in the poor families' houses, the running of the dispensary and the purchasing of medicine for the poor.

19	Sr. Emmanuela Micallef	Israel	Towards the provision of food, medicine, wheelchairs and other needs of people living in misery and desperate situations.
20	Fr. Anthony Gatt	India	Towards providing primary and secondary education for the poor children in the parish.
21	Sr. Yvonne Camilleri	Egypt	Towards providing books, clothing and other basic needs to the poor.
22	Fr. Vince Micallef	Brazil	Towards providing hampers and helping adolescents to attend schools and courses in order to specialise in nursing, drawing, sewing and cooking.
23	Fr. Jimmy Xerri	Brazil	Towards the upkeep of the institution that caters for seminarians of all the state; also towards helping 74 young men through their priestly formation.
24	Fr. Saviour Vella	Brazil	Towards the project "Bon Samaritano" which was started two years previously in the outskirts of Maceio.
25	Fr. Hilary Abela	Kenya	Towards the pastoral work with orphans, widows and old persons and for assisting persons infected with AIDS.
26	Fr. Xavier Cutajar	Brazil	Towards the building of a hall to be used for pastoral work and the formation of children.
27	Sr. Victoria Vassallo	Ethiopia	Towards providing education and helping the very poor to have a better future.
28	Sr. Celeste Buhagiar	Pakistan	Towards the running of the dispensary, where a great number of patients suffering from all kinds of infections and diseases due to great poverty attend every day.
29	Sr. Salvina Grech	Chad	Towards the running of a hostel for 20 very poor girls.
30	Sr. Luigina Muscat	Israel	Towards assisting and paying school fees for the very poor pupils to continue with their education.
31	Sr. Victoria Camilleri	Israel	Towards helping poor Palestinians and all those in need.
32	Fr. Albert Said	Sudan	Towards helping and caring for hundreds of poor people in the parish and for pastoral and social work.
33	Ms. Josephine Seychell	India	Towards the printing of books, leaflets and other material to be used for the moral and spiritual formation of poor families, children and youths.
34	Fr. Paul Aquilina	India	Towards pastoral work with the poor and the printing of hymn books for the parish.
35	Sr. Margaret Muscat	Egypt	Towards taking care of orphaned girls and helping them continue with their studies to help them have a better future.
36	Sr. Ludgarda Camilleri	Ethiopia	Towards the running of a children's home providing shelter for 160 orphaned, destitute or abandoned children.
37	Sr. Mariella Spiteri	Pakistan	Towards helping students attending the school with the basic needs, such as nutrition, uniforms, tuition fees and medical assistance.
38	Sr. Mary Abdilla	Israel	Towards helping the needy families with medicines and paying their hospital bills and water and electricity bills.
39	Sr. Loreta Xerri	Pakistan	Towards helping the 300 families, who due to the great floods, lost their homes and belongings.
40	Fr. Carmel Borg	Brazil	Towards the project for the deaf and dumb and the provision of the necessary equipment.
41	Fr. Alfons Sammut	Turkey	Towards helping and caring for the elderly and the unemployed.
42	Fr. Philip Cutajar	Cuba	Towards helping patients with AIDS and running a tailoring workshop for women.

43	Sr. Josette Spiteri Cremona	Zambia	Towards the opening of a bookshop and the running of a media centre to spread the Gospel message and promote the dignity of all people.
44	Fr. Jos.M.Gauci Sacco S.J.	India	Towards subsidising religious publications for the poor people and social communications at the parish.
45	Fr. John Caruana	Brazil	Towards building a new chapel.
46	Sr. Marie Louise Grech	Poland	Towards working with and aiding the poor, the sick and the lonely.
47	Ms. Giuliana Taliana	India	Towards food rations, medical assistance, tuitions and paying school fees for the 50 girls living in the slum area of Golibar.
48	Ms Anne Mary Attard	India	Towards the ongoing maintenance, repairs and running expenses of the premises being used for formation courses.
49	Fr. Richard Ebejer	Nigeria	Towards providing financial aid for hospital treatment and paying school fees to the poor people and youths.
50	Fr. Luke Azzopardi	Brazil	Towards providing the basic needs such as clothes and giving financial support to the very poor families.
51	Mr. Paul Farrugia	Sudan	Towards giving free education to poor students who cannot afford to pay their school fees and providing food on special occasions for the children attending catechism classes.
52	Fr. Hermann Mizzi	Egypt	Towards providing food, medicines and special assistance to the poor together with financial and spiritual help.
53	Fr. Salvatore Sammut	Brazil	Towards providing useful material like books, videos etc. for Catechism courses.
54	Fr. Anthony Scerri	India	Towards the building of the two hostels for poor boys and girls where they can get proper food, medical care and good education.
55	Fr. Lawrence Essery	Tunisia	Towards the running of the primary school and the purchasing of new computer for the computer classroom.
56	Mons. Vincent Costa	Brazil	Towards financing the project "Movement against Misery and Poverty" and the diocesan pastoral work to prepare priests for their future ministry.
57	Sr. Catherine Aquilina	Brazil	Towards the running of the formation house for girls coming from very poor families and the provision of food, education and all basic needs.
58	Sr. Emiliana Agius	Brazil	Towards caring for children coming from broken families and the provision of food, clothing and educational material.
59	Sr. Rita Aquilina	Brazil	Towards the home visits and the provision of medicines, blankets, clothes and other basic needs to the families living in misery.
60	Sr. Rose Fenech	Philippines	Towards providing better education and food to undernourished children coming from broken families.
61	Sr. Maria Esther Attard	Pakistan	Towards the repair of the T.B. Centre and the provision of weekly treatment to the poor patients.
62	Sr. Mary Pace	Tripoli	Towards helping financially the poor families and teaching of knitting and embroidery to young girls.
63	Fr. John Farrugia	Pakistan	Towards financing programmes for Christian formation of youths and adults in the poor parishes.
64	Mons. Paul Darmanin	Kenya	Towards the recovery of the diocese from the emergency state due to lack of rains.
65	Mons. Robert Camilleri OFM	Honduras	Towards the provision of food, medicines, clothes, education, housing and other basic needs for the poor people in the diocese.
66	Fr. Anthony Calleja	Burundi	Towards various projects in respect of health, education and scholarships.
67	Fr. Joe Cremona	Philippines	Towards the construction of the premises in the parish to be used for seminars, talks, retreats and as a youth centre.

68	Fr. Raymond Portelli	Peru`	Towards a daily meal for the poor families, a medical hospice for AIDS patients and a rehabilitation centre for drug addicts.
69	Sr. Sandra Cassar	Kenya	Towards paying the fees for the four year nursing course taken by one of the girls living in a home.
70	Sr. Emanuel Borg	India	Towards the provision of food to malnourished children and the provision of education for the poor.
71	Fr. Garvin Grech	Bolivia	Towards the running of several soup kitchens for poor children, old people and people with special needs.
72	Fr. Bernard Mallia	Sudan	Towards the building of a youth hostel for street children.
73	Fr. Louis Zammit	India	Towards training the catechists and lay leaders and the provision of transport.
74	Fr. Joseph Cilia	India	Towards the provision of awareness programmes to youths on drugs, alcoholism and HIV/AIDS and the running of a small hostel for poor college students.
75	Sr. Francesca Cachia	Brazil	Towards helping financially poor families by paying their water and electricity bills and buying food and medicine.
76	Sr. Rita Theuma	India	Towards the upgrading of the dining room at the orphanage.
77	Sr. Serphina Grima	India	Towards providing books, clothes and other necessities to the very poor.
78	Sr. Maria Domenici	Israel	Towards providing books, uniforms and private lessons to the poor children attending school.
79	Sr. Mary Dolores Saliba	Czech Republic	Towards running a shelter home for mothers and their children who have family problems and taking care of women in prison.
80	Ms. Rita Refalo	Latvia	Towards the renovation of the new centre and the pastoral work with the formation of youths and families, who have lost the value of life and hope in the future.
81	Fr. Paul Formosa	Brazil	Towards the work with the poor families, unmarried mothers and sick children; also towards the construction of a day centre for the alcoholics and drug addicts.
82	Fr. Alexander Busuttill	Peru`	Towards the purchase of an eye-care equipment for the already existing clinic in order to have it fully functional.
83	Sr. Gaetana Bonello	India	Towards the provision of medicine, food, clothes and other needs for the sick and the poor; also towards the running of an orphanage.
84	Sr. Maria Grazia Farrugia	Zimbabwe	Towards the social pastoral work in four centres; also towards providing home basic care for HIV and AIDS patients, mainly food, medicine and other needs.
85	Fr. Anthony Mercieca	Guatemala	Towards the running of a home for the homeless old men; also to give support to people living in the streets and prisoners condemned to life sentences.
86	Sr. Maria C. Grech	Chad	Towards the running of a hostel for the 20 very poor girls; also towards helping financially a poor student who is studying for the priesthood.
87	Missionary Experience 2007	Guatemala	Towards the construction of a fish farm.